

AIB 2020: VIRTUAL JUNIOR FACULTY CONSORTIUM

Chair: Ruth V. Aguilera, D'Amore-McKim School of Business, Northeastern University

Application Deadline: June 5th, 2020 (New Deadline for Virtual Consortium)

The 2020 Academy of International Business (AIB) Junior Faculty Consortium will be held VIRTUALLY on July 3, 2020. All junior faculty members who are active in research and teaching in the broad field of international business are invited to participate. Preference will be given to those who have been involved in teaching and/or research for no more than three years.

The consortium will provide plenty of opportunity for interaction – among junior faculty participants and between the junior and senior faculty. There will also be time for junior faculty to discuss their research programs, or specific research projects, in small groups comprised of both junior and senior colleagues.

To apply, please e-mail the following two documents to Ruth Aguilera (r.aguilera@northeastern.edu) by June 5th, 2020:

1. A one-page CV, and
2. A one-page description of your research program, highlighting a current paper or ongoing project on which you would like input, making sure to emphasize the international business focus of the work.

Please send these as two separate Microsoft Word documents, with your surname in the file title (e.g., NameBio.doc and NameResearch.doc). Kindly use “AIB 2020 JFC Application” as the subject line for your e-mail.
