

Global Leadership in Context Annual Research Symposium & Paper Development Workshop

The annual meeting of AIB-Oceania is renowned for its informal and collegial character. Join us in person on 24-25 November 2022 for the Annual Research Symposium and Paper Development Workshop, hosted by QUT Business School, Brisbane, Australia.

News Flash: Workshops are planned for 26 November, subject to demand. Watch this space!

Keynote speakers

Allan Bird is a Sr Professor 'at Goa Institute of Management. His research focuses on effective leadership and management at the intersections of culture in global contexts. Particular interests include the assessment and development of individual and organizational competencies and, more recently, diversity, inclusion and equity in intercultural interactions. Dr Bird's publications appear in Journal of International Business Studies, Journal of World Business, International Business Review and Academy of Management Journal (amongst others). He is a reviewing editor for the Journal of International Business Studies. Since 2001, Dr Bird has also served as President of The Kozai Group, Inc., an international consulting firm focused on identifying and developing exceptional talent.

Tine Köhler is Associate Professor for International Management at the University of Melbourne, Australia. Her main research interests include cross-cultural management, cross-cultural communication and coordination, group processes, qualitative research methods, research design, meta-analysis, and regression. Her work appears in Organizational Research Methods (ORM), Journal of International Business Studies, Journal of Management, European Journal Work Organizational Psychology, Small Group Research (SGR), Academy of Management Learning and Education (AMLE), Industrial and Organizational Psychology, Psychological Methods and International Journal of Human Resource Management (amongst others). Dr Köhler is Co-Editor-in Chief at ORM and an instructor for the Consortium for the Advancement of Research Methods and Analysis (CARMA).

Indicative Schedule

DAY 1: We meet early on Thursday 24 November for the Research Symposium. This is a full day of research paper presentations, panel sessions, insights from our invited keynote speakers and dedicated mentoring for Women in Academy of International Business. We conclude with an early dinner, leaving plenty of time to enjoy the tropical evening of Brisbane.

DAY 2: We continue on Friday with small group Paper Development Workshops in which mentors and mentees are matched. We also plan interactive panels with Journal Editors and 'spotlights' on, for example, research methods, engagement and career development.

Participating Journal Editors

We are excited that the following Editors will join the Paper Development Workshop as mentors and panel participants, representing more than twelve journals of note:

Prof. Siah Hwee Ang (Victoria University of Wellington): Journal of World Business, Reviewing Editor; Asia Pacific Journal of Management, Senior Editor

Prof. Allan Bird (Goa Institute of Management): Journal of International Business Studies, Reviewing Editor

Prof. Fang Lee Cooke (Monash University): International Business Review, Co-Editor-in-Chief; The International Journal of Human Resource Management, Co-Editor-in-Chief; Journal of World Business, Consulting Editor

Prof. Lin Cui (Australian National University): Journal of International Management, Associate Editor; International Business Review, Senior Editor

Prof. Susan Freeman (University of South Australia): International Marketing Review, Associate Editor

A/Prof Tine Köhler (University of Melbourne): Organizational Research Methods, Co-Editor

Prof. Vikas Kumar (University of Sydney): Journal of International Management, Editor; Management and Organization Review, Senior Editor

Dr Noemi Sinkovics (University of Glasgow): Critical Perspectives on International Business, Associate Editor; Data in Brief, Co-editor in Chief

Prof. William Newburry (Florida International University): AIB Insights, Editor

Prof. Hussain Rammal (University of Adelaide): Review of International Business and Strategy, Co-Editor; Journal of knowledge Management, Real Impact Editor (Oceania)

Submission Instructions & Notification

Submissions open from 15 August to 4 September. We anticipate authors will be notified by 26 September. Please visit AIB Oceania for submission links once the submission period opens.

PAPER PRESENTATIONS & PANELS. Please submit your 1000 word abstract (not a full paper) of your international business research in-progress or panel proposal for the Research Symposium.

PAPER DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP. Please submit your paper of not more than 30 pages double spaced. Include contact details of all authors. Full papers are desirable but not essential as early stage ideas with a clear conceptual development and framing are also welcome.

REGISTRATION. Registration opens mid-October and is available only to members of the Academy of International Business (AIB) who are current at the time of the meeting. Non-members of AIB will need to join. To become a member of the AIB, please visit: <https://aib.msu.edu/membership/>. Regular membership is US$120 (US$40 for full-time students) and brings a host of benefits. A modest registration fee will likely apply towards catering costs.

ENQUIRIES. Please contact the AIB-Oceania 2022 Programme Chair & Organiser: Prof. Sara McGaughey (email: sara.mcgaughey@qut.edu.au). Contact details for enquires best directed to Track Chairs will be posted on the AIB Oceania website in due course.